

Call for Papers

The Journal of Advances in Information Fusion (JAIF) seeks original contributions in the technical areas of research related to information fusion. Authors are encouraged to submit their manuscripts for peer review <http://isif.org/journal>.

Call for Reviewers

The success of JAIF and its value to the research community is strongly dependent on the quality of its peer review process. Researchers in the technical areas related to information fusion are encouraged to register as a reviewer for JAIF at <http://jaif.msubmit.net>. Potential reviewers should notify via email the appropriate editors of their offer to serve as a reviewer.
